

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, interest in motorcycle riding as a popular form of recreation and transportation continues to increase; and

WHEREAS, the safe operation of a motorcycle requires specialized training, the use of good judgment, and knowledge of traffic laws; and

WHEREAS, the annual observance of Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month calls attention to the importance of actively promoting safe motorcycle operation, increased rider training, improved licensing efforts, and motorist awareness; and

WHEREAS, by working together to increase knowledge of the special needs of all road and highway users while encouraging users to exercise added caution, we can make our roads safer and ensure that motorcyclists throughout South Carolina have an enjoyable riding season.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 2005 as

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to be aware of motorcyclists who share our roads and highways and to work together to reduce motorcycle related crashes, injuries, and fatalities.
